Try, notice, try again

Choose a pattern, a word or a short rhythm. Try it, listen to a partner and try once more. This records an experiment, not a score.

What I want to practise

My first attempt: draw or describe it

One helpful suggestion I heard

What I noticed when I tried again

Something I want to ask or try next

Draw, speak, tap or ask a grown-up to write. Needing help is welcome. Original family activity; personal, family and classroom printing is welcome. Keep attribution.
